Application National Milking Shorthorn Junior Progressive Breeder Award

Please submit a professional resume

Milking Shorthorn Story

The Milking Shorthorn Story should be no more than three pages, font 12, Times New Roman, double-spaced include your involvement on your operation: describe your herd management (Feeding, Breeding, Sanitation, Herd Health), future plans in the dairy industry or beef industry address your leadership and activities in the breed and outside the Milking Shorthorn Breed.

Highlights of Activities

I. List organizations, offices held & awards in dairy activities. (Limit responses to space provided.)

Year	Organization	Offices/Awards
EX. 2018	American Milking Shorthorn Junior Society	National Junior President
2017	National Holstein Association	Young Distinguished Junior Member Finalist

II. List organizations, offices held & awards in other activities. (Limit responses to space provided.)

Year	Organization	Offices/Awards
EX. 2018	Kansas State Bakery Science Club	Outstanding Freshman award
2017	Smith Central High School	Varsity Football Letter Award

Summary of Animal Ownership

List current inventory of Milking Shorthorns

Name	Reg. OR I.D.	Birthdate	Value
Ex. Cherrywood Zippo Katrina	68411642	03/02/2015	5,000.00

Summary of Animal Ownership

List current inventory of all other breeds owned

Name	Reg. OR I.D.	Birthdate
Ex. Achen Temtation Mamie (BS)	982003152585142	11/07/2011

On a separate sheet answer the following appropriate questions for your age division in 500 words or less.

Age 9-15 as of January 1st of the current year

1. If money was not a problem, what cow family would you want to have offspring out of? Why?
2. How do you incorporate the National Milking Shorthorn motto "Breeding for Tomorrow" in your herd?

Age 16-21 as of January 1st of the current year

1. What traits do you feel are important to focus on when breeding your Milking Shorthorns to make them competitive in today's dairy industry?
2. How do you incorporate the National Milking Shorthorn motto "Breeding for Tomorrow" in your herd?
3. How can we use new technology to promote the Milking Shorthorn breed and the American Milking Shorthorn Society?