This award has been created to recognize cows who have completed an impressive and exemplary productive life. This award will recognize Herdbook (full or EXP) and Genetic Expansion (50% Milking Shorthorn). This award is presented only once in a cow's lifetime, usually the year after she has completed her final DHIA record or leaves the herd (or retired and no longer producing).

Lifetime Production Requirements:

- A cow must qualify in two of the following three categories:
 - 150,000 pounds milk
 - 6,000 pounds fat
 - 5,250 pounds protein
- Please attach a copy of the cow's lifetime completed DHIA cow page.
- Award is only give once per cow – previous winners are not eligible (which is why it is best to apply for the award at the end of the cow's productive life).
- No limit on the cows recognized per year/herd.
- This award is retroactive – cows may be nominated posthumously.
